

COOKOOVAYA

WISE CUISINE

Cookoovaya is a celebration, it is a daily feast and as such, is boisterous: laughter and glasses and cutlery and plates compose a melody each day. It is hospitality through a good meal. You will remember how you felt and not just what you ate.

Cookoovaya advocates wise cuisine, in the sense that it respects the cooking process, the ingredients, the service and, of course, hospitality. That respects household economy, sagacity, knowledge, seasonality, and the imagination to poetically combine ingredients from our blessed country. Everything is prepared on the premises: from the bread and the food to the ice cream and the pasta. Cookoovaya is about the food, the fare, the fodder, the seed that will become food, the quest of the cultivator.

Cookoovaya welcomes you and offers you a chair. "Where should I rest my right hand?" you might wonder, but the answer comes easily from your personal experience: you will clink your glass loudly, you will eat, and you will have an impact on your dinner partner. Cookoovaya alights on your linen napkin, hovers above the room, tasting and yearning, pouring wine into glasses. It peeks at its guests from the open plan kitchen. Welcome to Cookoovaya!

The House Wine evolved from our desire to offer Cookoovaya guests the option of a high quality bottled wine. We participate actively in the production, from viticulture to the vinification. Gkirkemis Winery is located at Prosilia, Polydentri village at Domokos plateau. At the 350 acres vineyard of excellent terroir, 12 different grape varieties are grown with respect to the environment and deep care.

The four labels of the house wine which were designed by Chris TrivizasCreative Studio won two Merits at EVGE (Greek graphic design and illustration awards) for logotype and packaging and a Merit Award at Hiiibrand (International design awards).

Branding and logo work for Cookoovaya House Wine were awarded a commendation at the Greek Graphic Design and Illustration awards EVGE in 2015.
